

AFRAPIX – A SOUTH AFRICAN VIEW BY SOUTH AFRICAN PHOTOGRAPHERS

AFRAPIX 1st Floor Khotso House, 42 De Villiers Street, Johannesburg 2001. P.O. Box 9942 Johannesburg 2000
Telephone (011) 23-7586/7. Telex SA Council of Churches 86519

AFRAPIX is a photographic library which provides material for local and overseas media and publications.

AFRAPIX is a photographic agency whose photographers provide a freelance service to Southern African and overseas publications, specialising in features, news, documentary and audio visual work.

AFRAPIX was born out of a number of South African photographers sharing materials, resources and ideas. Some of the photographers have worked for established newspapers and magazines over a number of years throughout the country.

CATEGORIES:

AGRICULTURE

ARTS

AFRICA – neighbouring states and others

BOYCOTTS

CHURCHES

DEVELOPMENT

DETENTIONS

EDUCATION – schools, protests, literacy, informal and universities.

GROUP AREAS

HEALTH – Clinics and hospitals, industrial diseases, nutritional diseases and cholera.

MILITARY

NATIONAL GROUPS

NAMIBIA

PERSONALITIES

POLITICS – white, Indian, coloured, black urban and homelands.

POLITICAL TRIALS

PRIVILEGE AND POVERTY

RESETTLEMENT

SPORT

TOWNSHIPS – rents, protests, community projects, crime, shebeens and general conditions.

HOUSING

INDUSTRY AND COMMERCE

LABOUR – workers, working conditions, trade unions, strikes.

WOMEN

YOUTH

Prices are subject to negotiation for township, community, church and subsidised publications.

